

Dialogue

A problem aired is a problem shared
And perspective's really the thing.
To talk to others is not all hot air,
If only you'll let them in.

For compassion's a human, common thread,
Weaving 'tween judgement and hate
To turn foe into friend
Judge me not, not I you, just understand, instead.

Geoff

Please contact Prison Dialogue for permission to reproduce any of these poems